NATIONAL CATHOLIC WELFARE CONFERENCE

Address—1312 Massachusetts ave., N. W., Washington, D. C.
Phone: REpublic 3553.

The National Catholic Welfare Conference, established in 1919, as the successor to the National Catholic War Council, one of the seven welfare agencies recognized by the U. S. Government during World War I, is an organization of the members of the Hierarchy of the United States, for the purposes specified in the Brief "Communes" issued by His Holiness, Pope Benedict XV, April 10, 1919, and in the Letter of His Holiness, Pope Pius XI, of August 10, 1927. The National Catholic Welfare Conference is not a council or legislative assembly, as contemplated by the Sacred Canons, and therefore, the resolutions of the Bishops at the meetings of the National Catholic Welfare Conference do not have the force of law. Every Bishop may make use of any service offered by the Conference through its Departments, Committees, general secretary, and staff officers at the National Headquarters. The Conference aims to facilitate discussions of policies affecting the interests and activities of the Church in the United States.

Every Bishop of the Church in the United States and its territories and possessions, whether residential or titular, ipso facto has active and passive voice in the Conference.

The Conference is incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia and has for its objects the unifying, coordinating and organizing of the Catholic people of the United States in works of education, social welfare, immigrant aid, civic education and other activities.

The Conference is administered by a board composed of ten Bishops elected at the annual meeting of the Hierarchy of the United States to serve for the term of one year. No elected Bishop shall be eligible to serve more than five consecutive terms, but he may be again eligible for election after one year out of office.

THE THIRD ORDER SECULAR OF ST. FRANCIS

A religious order founded by St. Francis of Assisi in 1221, to afford seculars, the clergy and laity, an opportunity to live according to the Gospel counsels through the observance of an approved rule of life. Since 1921, the Fraternities in the United States and Canada have united in Tertiary Provinces, and these in turn are federated into a national organization known officially as the Third Order of St. Francis in the United States and Canada.

In 1941, the Administrative Board of Bishops of the N.C.W.C. designated the Most Rev. Christian H. Winkelmann, Bishop of Wichita, as Bishop Protector of the Third Order.

The Franciscan Provincial superiors form its Directive Board, while the regular functions of the Third Order are administered by an Executive Board and the Third Order Commissaries. The office of the national secretary (1434 W. 51st st., Chicago, Ill.) serves as a clearing house for information respecting the Third Order in all its phases. It is the official agency of the Holy See through which Catholic children of the world make their contribution of prayer and alms toward the spiritual and temporal welfare of children in mission lands. Since its beginning, it has enjoyed the personal favor of every Pope. In 1926, Pope Pius XI elevated the Society to Pontifical Rank. Holy Childhood endeavors to attain its end through the united efforts of all Catholic children who as members are taught to cooperate with the propagation of the Faith by means of study, prayer and sacrifice. All funds are distributed annually to every part of the mission world by a Pontifical Commission, a generous allotment being provided for the Home Missions of the United States. All allocations sent to the Missions through the agency of the Holy Childhood are used solely in the interests of the children of these missions. In this way, the world-wide membership of the Association each year procures Baptism for more than 500,000 infants and supports and educates nearly 1,000,000 orphans.
